

MINOR IN GLOBAL STUDIES

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

Global Studies Minor (revised 02-28-19)

The Global Studies Minor at UW-Milwaukee provides an integrated international education experience incorporating Global Studies courses, study abroad, foreign language, and internationally focused studies. It is a particularly attractive option for students wishing to add a global perspective to their major, no matter what it may be.

The Global Studies minor requires completion of at least 18 credits, distributed as follows*:

◀ CORE COURSES ▶

Common to all tracks is the degree's core curriculum, which includes the following:

Global Studies Minor Core Courses

1. Core Courses: 6 credits from the following course list are required. It is recommended that the core coursework be completed prior to Global Content coursework:

Global 101: People and Politics (SS), 3cr

Global 201: Economics and the Environment (SS), 3 cr

Global 202: Globalization and Information Technology (SS), 3 cr

2. Foreign Language: Minimum of four university-level semesters of a single foreign language is required. Retrocredits may be used to fulfill this requirement (note that a placement test must be taken and at least one 3-credit, university-level foreign language course successfully completed in order to earn retrocredits, according to foreign language departmental requirements).

3. Study Abroad: Minimum of 3 credits of an overseas academic experience or an internship outside of the U.S, approved by a Global Studies advisor.

Global Content Electives

6 credits from the attached electives list on reverse (also located at www.international.uwm.edu)

* A minimum of 9 credits for the minor must be taken at the 300-level or above (these credits can include foreign language or additional study abroad coursework). At least 9 credits must be completed in residence at UWM (credits earned in a UWM study abroad or exchange program count toward this requirement). No more than 9 credits from another major, minor, or certificate program may be counted toward the Global Studies Minor.
