Notice that there are various versions available, including a Kindle version. Purchase whichever version is best for you.

All other readings will be supplied to you for free on Canvas.

Course Description:

This course utilizes primary and secondary source material in translation in order to examine ancient Greek civilization from its beginnings to Alexander the Great. It will examine the political, social, economic, and religious features of Greek civilization as it expanded and evolved.

Course Objectives:

By the end of this course, you will be able to...

1. Analyze critically primary source material in translation.
2. Identify important historical events and individuals.
3. Trace the development of Greek institutions (e.g. political, religious, etc.) over the centuries.
4. Write concisely and analytically in response to questions posed by the instructor.

Grading Scale:

95-100	A	80-82	B-	67-69	D+
90-94	A-	77-79	C+	63-66	D
87-89	B+	73-76	C	60-62	D-
83-86	B	70-72	C-	Lower than 60	F

Evaluation:

Quizzes	30%
Reading Responses	50%
Final Paper	20%

Course Components:

1. Quizzes: There are 9 quizzes due throughout the semester. Each quiz covers a chapter of Thomas Martin's Ancient Greece. There is no time restriction, but you have only one opportunity to take the quiz. Your lowest quiz grade is dropped. Each quiz is between 20-25 questions (a combination of multiple choice and true/false questions). The answers to the quiz questions appear in order within each chapter. [In other words, the answer to question 1 of a given quiz will appear in the reading before the answer to question 2.] You will see one question at a time; after you answer a question, you cannot go back and change it. No late quizzes are accepted for any reason.

2. Reading Responses: There are 8 reading responses due throughout the semester. You will provide a response to a question(s) that I pose on ancient source material in translation. [I will provide the ancient source with the questions.] I will typically make a short video to orient you to the source, which you should watch before writing. Your lowest reading response grade is dropped. No late reading responses are accepted for any reason.

Guidelines for writing:

- a. Do not include an introduction or conclusion. Get to the point.
- b. Do not express your perspective or opinion. Do not use personal pronouns (such as "I" or "me").
- c. Your response should be typed, 12-point font.
- d. Do not refer to any other reading than the one assigned.
- e. Cite your sources in parenthesis: page number or paragraph number.
- f. Provide all the evidence.
- g. No direct quotations.

3. Final Paper: The final paper will be available on Friday, November 27 at 8 am and due on Friday, December 11 at 12 pm (Noon). It is not a research paper. It should be 2000-2500 words. The same guidelines for writing essays given above are applicable here (except for point a.). No late papers are accepted.

All material for the course can be found under the "assignments" tab on Canvas with the exception of the syllabus (which is under the "syllabus" tab).

No extra credit opportunities are offered in this course. Do not ask.

Academic Honesty:

All work must meet the criteria for academic honesty as established by the University.

Please see:

<https://uwm.edu/academicaffairs/facultystaff/policies/academic-misconduct/>

No material (including from the web) that has not been assigned by the instructor may be used for any of the papers.

Work Per Week:

The amount of time that you should expect to spend on homework per week will vary according to student. Nevertheless, the ballpark figure of 5-8 hours is what I suggest.

If you require special accommodations due to a documented disability, please contact me.
