Are you seeing these BEHAVIORS IN YOUR CHILD?

Children who have experienced trauma can show its effects through different behaviors. If you are seeing any of the following, it could be a sign of trauma:

- Withdrawn
- Regression in development (social, academic, physical, etc.)
- Quick temper
- Impulsive actions that can threaten health
- Problems sleeping
- Skipping school or running away
- Screaming and crying
- Lying and/or cheating
- Aggression, defiance
- Drastic or sudden changes in personality
- Bullying

Seek help from a professional if your child is exhibiting these symptoms.
