

BLACK LIVES MATTER:

A Global Comparative Study

Global Studies 391

Fall
2022

Black Lives Matter: A Global Comparative Study

is a team taught internationally focused comparative course on the BLM movement in the U.S. and abroad. Examine the history of BLM and how it has expanded and developed in multiple countries.

Learning Objective:

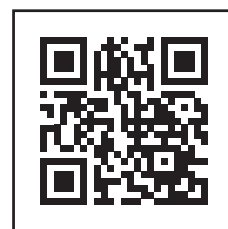

Understand how racism and anti-Blackness operate in different parts of the world and how social justice advocates in various global contexts have worked against this racism.

- Satisfies the L&S international requirement
- See your advisor about applying these credits to your degree program

STUDY ABROAD January 2023

Faculty-led study abroad program to the United Kingdom. Details coming Summer 2022.*

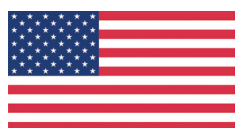

*Scholarships, financial aid, and grants may be used for study abroad.

5 Instructors / 5 Perspectives / 3 Credits

Each instructor will teach a three-week module.

Studyabroad.uwm.edu

IDEAS
INCREASE & DIVERSIFY
EDUCATION ABROAD
FOR U.S. STUDENTS

Global and International Studies

cie center for international education