Anne Morgan’s War: AMERICAN WOMEN REBUILDING FRANCE 1917-1924

An exhibition of photographs from the Anne Morgan archives at the Franco-American Museum, Château de Blérancourt, Picardy, France.

FEBRUARY 16 - MAY 18, 2018
4th floor, Golda Meir Library, UW-Milwaukee

Anne Morgan (left), daughter of J.P. Morgan, was a philanthropist who provided aid in France after WWI and WWII and supported working women in the US and in Europe in the fight for fair labor standards.

EXHIBITION OPENING | MARCH 6, 2018
A discussion with
Elaine Leary and Miles Morgan
Program at 6:00pm | Reception at 7:00pm

Elaine Leary, former director of the American Friends of Blérancourt, has over 45 years of experience promoting French language and culture and has received three French government awards.

FILM PREMIER | APRIL 24, 2018
Premier of the documentary film
Anne Morgan’s War / L’autre chemin des Dames with Elaine Leary and Miles Morgan
Program at 6:00pm | Reception at 7:00pm

Miles Morgan is the grand-nephew of Anne Morgan as well as a musician and conductor. He is a board member of the American Friends of Blérancourt.

This exhibition is possible thanks to the American Friends of Blérancourt, the Alliance Française de Milwaukee, the UWM Department of French, Italian, and Comparative Literature, UWM Libraries, and many other sponsors.

for more information about the exhibition and associated events, please call (414) 229-4345 or visit http://uwm.edu/libraries/anne-morgan-exhibit/