Reviewing the Why, Approach, and Long-Term Implications

Hold Reform Teams

Moving from Hold Audit to Hold Reform

Key Insights

Offices with most holds: Library, police dept, cashier's office, student affairs

Raising the threshold for financial holds

Removing holds related to engagement

No policy or standardized practice for use of holds

Using our Equity Lens

Use positive psychology and inclusive language for remaining hold resolutions

Understand demographic data

Use this understanding to design holistic sustainable interventions for holds

Hold Audit

Institutions used two approaches: auditing all holds, and auditing all barriers to registration

UWP: 40 removed, 22 need reform

UWM: 33 removed, 26 need
reform

Carthage: 6 need reform

MATC: 4 need reform

Hold Reform

Create new intervention pathways for certain holds

Embed in Technology for scale

Train New Stakeholders

Create Policies for Use

Moon Shot for Equity Monthly Newsletter

March 2021

What We Are Doing This Month

We are forming our teams to prepare for our Moon Shot Convening on March 29th and 30th. The Convening is open to all campus stakeholders and if you would like to be involved on any of the best practice teams, please reach out to your campus Program Owner and team leaders.

To register for the Convening you can click here.

What Happened Last Month

Last month we held a best practice leadership institute with those who were appointed to oversee the Tier 1 Best practices team. Team leaders received an overview of the best practices and strategies for execution and a project management template to outline key steps in executing each practice. Team leaders also received an inclusive leadership self assessment to help leaders identify stakeholders across campus who can provide unique perspectives to closing equity gaps across the campus.

Feedback from the leadership institute inspired the following:

- In an effort to be more inclusive and better engage stakeholders we are conducting a call for participation for anyone who would like to engage in any of the best practice teams. This is an opportunity for professional development if you would like to sharpen your expertise as well as an opportunity for elevated consultation if you already serve as an expert.
- Faculty are encouraged to serve on best practice teams to provide expertise on the student experience.
