

Community-engaged Health Research (CeHR) Scientific Focal Area of Excellence

Accomplishments

Compiled by CeHR Committee 1-11-15

Past and Current Research Support:

US Health Resources and Services Agency,
National Institutes of Health,
International Council of Nurses,
Environmental Protection Agency,
Center for Disease Control and Prevention, and more.

Current Community-engaged Health Research Partnerships:

Wisconsin Well Woman;
Wisconsin Department of Children and Families;
Community-based organizations in Milwaukee, such as
The Silver Spring Neighborhood Center;
The House of Peace;
Housing Authority of the City of Milwaukee;
The Milwaukee Homeless Veterans Initiative;
Columbia-St. Mary's;
Fight Asthma Milwaukee-Allies,
African American Breastfeeding Network;
Milwaukee County Behavioral Health Division;
Wheaton-Franciscan Health Care-All Saints in Racine;
Racine-Kenosha Community Action Agency;
Professional Women's Network for Service in Racine;
The Greater Racine Collaborative for Healthy Birth Outcomes; and more

Published Research

Nursing Outlook;
Journal of Obstetric, Gynecologic, & Neonatal Nursing;
Research in Nursing & Health;
Journal of the National Black Nurses Association;
Journal of Community Genetics;
Journal of Environmental Justice; and more.

Invited Research Presentations

National Conference on Health Disparities;
National Nursing Center Consortium National Conferences;
National Black Caucus of State Legislators and National Hispanic Caucus of State Legislators;
Wisconsin Legislative Committee on Infant Mortality;
Midwest Nursing Research Society;
American Public Health Association National Conferences; and more.