Unusual Tax Filing Situations

For Individuals Granted a Filing Extension by the IRS for 2018

Typically the IRS allows for a six month extension of time to file your return (October 15, 2019). Once this date is past, we would require you to submit copies of your IRS tax transcript or utilize the IRS DRT process. Some exceptions may apply to this.

An individual who is required to file a 2018 IRS income tax return and has been granted a filing extension by the IRS, must provide:

- A copy of the IRS's approval of an extension beyond the automatic six-month (October 15, 2019) extension if the individual requested an additional extension of the filing time for the tax year 2018;
- IRS Verification of Non-filing Letter (confirmation that the tax return has not yet been filed) from the IRS dated on or after October 1, 2019, obtained by completing IRS form 4506-T;
- A copy of IRS Form W-2 for each source of employment income received for the 2018 tax year; and
- A signed and dated statement (by both parents, if married) certifying the estimated amount of the individual's Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) and the U.S. income tax paid for the 2018 tax year. For the AGI this would be the amount on line 7 on the IRS Form 1040. For taxes paid, this would be the amount on line 13 minus line 46 on Schedule 2 on IRS Form 1040.

Example: For the 2018 tax year, I (insert name) and my spouse (if married, insert name) have been granted an extension from the IRS. Listed below are the best estimates at this time for the following:

Parent 1 income from work:

Estimated Adjusted Gross Income:

For Individuals Who Were Victims of IRS Identity Theft

- A copy of the Tax Return Database View (TRDBV) transcript for 2018
 - Note: A victim of IRS identify theft must contact the IRS at 1-800-908-4490. Upon authentication of the tax filer's identity, the IRS will provide, by U.S. Postal Service, a printout of the required tax filer's 2018 IRS income tax return information (TRDBV).
- A signed and dated statement (by both parents, if married) indicating the individual(s) was a victim of IRS tax-related identity theft and the IRS is aware of the tax-related identity theft.
