

2020 Glendale Woman's Club Scholarship
Instructions to Applicants

Please follow these instructions in order to receive full consideration for this scholarship opportunity.

1. Undergraduate and graduate students may apply for this $1,500 scholarship.
2. Applicants must have had a break in their education of at least two consecutive years (immediately after high school graduation, or at any time while seeking an Associate, Bachelor's or Master's degree).
3. Applicants should be over 21 years of age.
4. Applicants must plan to attend UW-Milwaukee in the 2020 Fall semester. UWM records must indicate evidence of application or admission to UWM, re-entry, or eligibility to continue at UWM in Fall 2020 by this application's due date.
5. Applicants should not leave any items blank. Hand-written responses should be printed and legible.
6. Applicants should clearly print their full name and add their signature to the end of their "Additional Information" statement.
7. Applicants must submit the signed Consent to Release (page 2) with their application materials (required). The Glendale Woman's Club will review applications and select the recipient.
8. Additional information such as a resume or reference letter may be submitted along with the application materials (optional). If additional space is needed to complete a response, attachments are acceptable.
9. Questions should be referred to the Scholarship Coordinator in the UWM Financial Aid Office and not to the Glendale Woman's Club.
