presents

A NEW DEAL? A Proper Place for Government

a conversation with

David Riemer

author of

Putting Government in its Place:
The Case for a New Deal 3.0

David Riemer graduated from Milwaukee's Riverside High School. After attending Harvard College and Law School, he returned to Wisconsin in 1975 to serve as legal advisor to Governor Patrick Lucey. He later held positions with U.S. Senator Edward Kennedy, Mayor John Norquist, and Governor Jim Doyle. Riemer is currently a Senior fellow at the Community Advocates Public Policy Institute in Milwaukee.
