

The Philosophy Department is honored to welcome
Professor Anne M. Coughlin
University of Virginia School of Law

Overturning Roe V. Wade,
Debating the Dobbs Case

Has been rescheduled for April 28th, 2023

3:00 PM - 5:30 PM

Mitchel Hall 361

Professor Coughlin has taught at the University of Virginia School of Law since 1995. Her research interests include criminal law, criminal procedure, feminist jurisprudence, and law and humanities.

She has served as co-chair of the National Association of Women Lawyers Supreme Court Evaluation Committee, lead the Molly Pitcher Project, which challenged the ban on women in military combat, and served as managing editor for the New York University Law Review.