

A rough deadline to keep in mind follows:

Decide on topic: End of September
Outline subjects and issues: Mid-October
Create overall research project: Early November
Discuss with professor: Mid-November
Start writing: By Thanksgiving
Present ideas to class: December 4 or 11
Turn in final paper: December 17 (Monday)

---

REQUIRED TEXTS:

These books are available at People's Books, located at 2122 Locust (near the corner of Locust and Maryland). All other readings are available on D2L.

Mikhail Bakunin – God and the State (978-0486224831)
Kathy Ferguson – Emma Goldman: Political Thinking in the Street (978-0742523012)
Emma Goldman – Anarchism and Other Essays (any collection, any publisher)
James Klausen and James Martel – How Not to be Governed (978-0739150351)
Peter Kropotkin – Anarchism: A Collection of Revolutionary Writings (978-0486419558)
Jacques Rancière – The Ignorant Schoolmaster: Five Lessons in Intellectual Emancipation
(978-0804719698)
James Scott – The Art of Not Being Governed: An Anarchist History of Upland Southeast Asia
(978-0300169171)

DATELINE

September 4: Introduction

Part I: Power

September 11: James Scott, The Art of Not Being Governed: An Anarchist History of Upland Southeast Asia

September 18: Emma Goldman, Anarchism and Other Essays (any source)

October 2: Rebecca Solnit, A Paradise Built in Hell (selections)
George Bernard Shaw, "The Impossibilities of Anarchism"
Saul Newman, "Anarchism," "Crowned Anarchism: Ontology," and
"Crowned Anarchy: International Relations"

Part II: Philosophy

October 9: Proudhon, essays
Bakunin, God and the State

October 16: Peter Kropotkin, Anarchism: A Collection of Revolutionary Writings

Part III: Past to Present

October 22: Pierre Clastres, Society against the State, chapters 1, 3, 10, 11

October 30: Kathy Ferguson, Emma Goldman: Political Thinking in the Street

Part IV: Practice

November 6: Paul Goodman, essays
Isaiah Berlin, "Two Concepts of Liberty"

November 13: Jacques Rancière, The Ignorant Schoolmaster: Five Lessons in Intellectual Emancipation

November 20: James Klausen and James Martel, How Not to be Governed

November 27: Thanksgiving Eve, no class

December 4: Student Presentations, Part 1

December 11: Student Presentations, Part 2

Monday, December 16: Final Project Due