

What's next in North Korea?

Denuclearization and the DPRK Regime

Join international experts on Korean affairs as they discuss what's next on the Korean Peninsula and why the North Korean nuclear dilemma matters to the U.S. A question-and-answer session will conclude the moderated event.

KOREA KF
FOUNDATION

한국국제교류재단

Thursday, Sept. 20 | 4–5:30 p.m.

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

Cunningham Hall, Room 151, 1921 E. Hartford Ave., Milwaukee, WI 53211

PANELIST

Uk Heo

UW-Milwaukee
Distinguished Professor of Political Science

PANELIST

Gi-Wook Shin

Stanford University Alumni
Chair of Korean Studies

Director of the Walter H.
Shorenstein Asia-Pacific
Research Center

Senior Fellow of the Freeman Spogli
Institute for International Studies

MODERATOR

Nan Kim

UW-Milwaukee
Associate Professor of History and Public
History Director

Sponsored by the Korea Foundation.

For additional accommodations or information about the event,
visit uwm.edu/koreafoundationlecture or email let-sci@uwm.edu.

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
UWMILWAUKEE