

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee's Diversifying Psychology Event

Wednesday, October 11th from 6:30 to 8:00 pm CST via Zoom

This event is for prospective applicants to the Psychology Department's Clinical PhD, Neuroscience PhD, and Health MS programs who identify with backgrounds historically underrepresented in Psychology, which can include, but is not limited to, individuals who identify as Black, Latinx, Indigenous, POC, or LGBTQ+ and/or with varying ability statuses, from low-income backgrounds, or first-gen college students.

Join us to meet with UWM faculty member(s) of interest and current students to learn more about UWM and DEI initiatives within the Psychology Department.

If interested, please register by October 4th, 2023
