The structure of service and the pattern of service are influenced by a variety of factors. The pattern of service is determined by the need and the service received. The structure of service is influenced by the need and the service received. The pattern of service is determined by the need and the service received.

In order to provide a service that meets the needs of the community, it is necessary to understand the needs of the community. The needs of the community can be identified by conducting a needs assessment. This assessment will identify the needs of the community and help to design a service that meets those needs.

To focus groups, the concept of community service is often associated with...
