

Are you passionate about teaching languages and making a positive impact? We are continually seeking talented language instructors to join the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee School of Continuing Education's Language Department.

Why Join Us?

Impactful work: Make a real difference in the lives of language learners by helping them develop their language proficiency and cultural understanding.

Diverse languages: Teach a wide range of languages and contribute to expanding our language offerings to meet the diverse needs and interests of our participants.

Flexibility: As an ad hoc language instructor, you will have the opportunity to enjoy a flexible schedule that can accommodate your other commitments or responsibilities. Teach live online, on-demand and/or in-person at our Downtown Milwaukee Conference Center.

Qualifications:

Strong proficiency in the language you wish to teach, with a deep understanding of its grammar, vocabulary, and cultural nuances.

Teaching experience: Prior experience in language instruction or related fields is preferred, showcasing your ability to effectively convey language concepts and engage students.

Certifications and degrees: Possessing relevant certifications or degrees in language education or related disciplines is an asset.

How to Apply:

If you are an enthusiastic and qualified language instructor, we would love to hear from you! Please reach out to our Program Manager at language@uwm.edu with the following information:

- Your updated resume/CV highlighting your language skills, teaching experience and qualifications.
- A brief cover letter expressing your interest in joining our language department and your approach to language instruction.

Our Program Manager will review your application and get in touch with qualified candidates to discuss potential opportunities.
