

The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee RECIPIENTS OF HONORARY DEGREES

Before 1964, The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee had no separate Honorary Degrees Committee but had representation on the All-University Committee. This committee selected Mayor Frank P. Zeidler to receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws in June 1958, and agreed that the honor be bestowed at the UWM Commencement rather than the one in Madison.

On April 9, 1964, the UWM faculty voted to establish a "Committee on Honorary Degrees at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee". (Fac. Doc. #265).
