

The Golda Meier Library will be home to Connected Systems Institute (CSI), a multidisciplinary, statewide collaboration between academia and industry. Thanks to industry partners, CSI will open May 2019.

Partners/Donors:

- Rockwell Automation
- Microsoft
- Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation
- Ansys

Campus and Community Partners include:

- Center for Sustainable Electric Energy Systems
- Center for Technology Innovation
- Supply Chain Management Institute
- Decision System and Artificial Intelligence Lab
- Lubar Entrepreneurship Center
- NSF Center on Water Equipment and Policy
- Center for Advanced Embedded Systems
- Bostrom Center for Business Competitiveness, Innovation & Entrepreneurship
- Industrial Assessment Center

Connected Systems Institute - GML 1st floor east wing

Connected Systems Institute is a multidisciplinary, statewide collaboration among academia, industry, and government to develop models for greater productivity through the Industrial Internet of Things, IIoT, technologies.

$1,200,000 Gifts    10,000 SF    Complete spring 2019

Maker space - Conference room – Test beds

Networking and Automation Labs - Test beds – Maker space – Conference

Simulation space - Emulation space

Test beds – Maker space – Conference - Simulation/Emulation

Questions?