

OFFICE OF SUSTAINABILITY

Office of Sustainability at UWM

Chief Sustainability Officer

Policy & Planning Analyst

Surplus Manager

Waste & Recycling Specialist

Recycling Hauler

Managing UWM's resources wisely.

Improving operations, connecting through curriculum,
research, student life, and community engagement

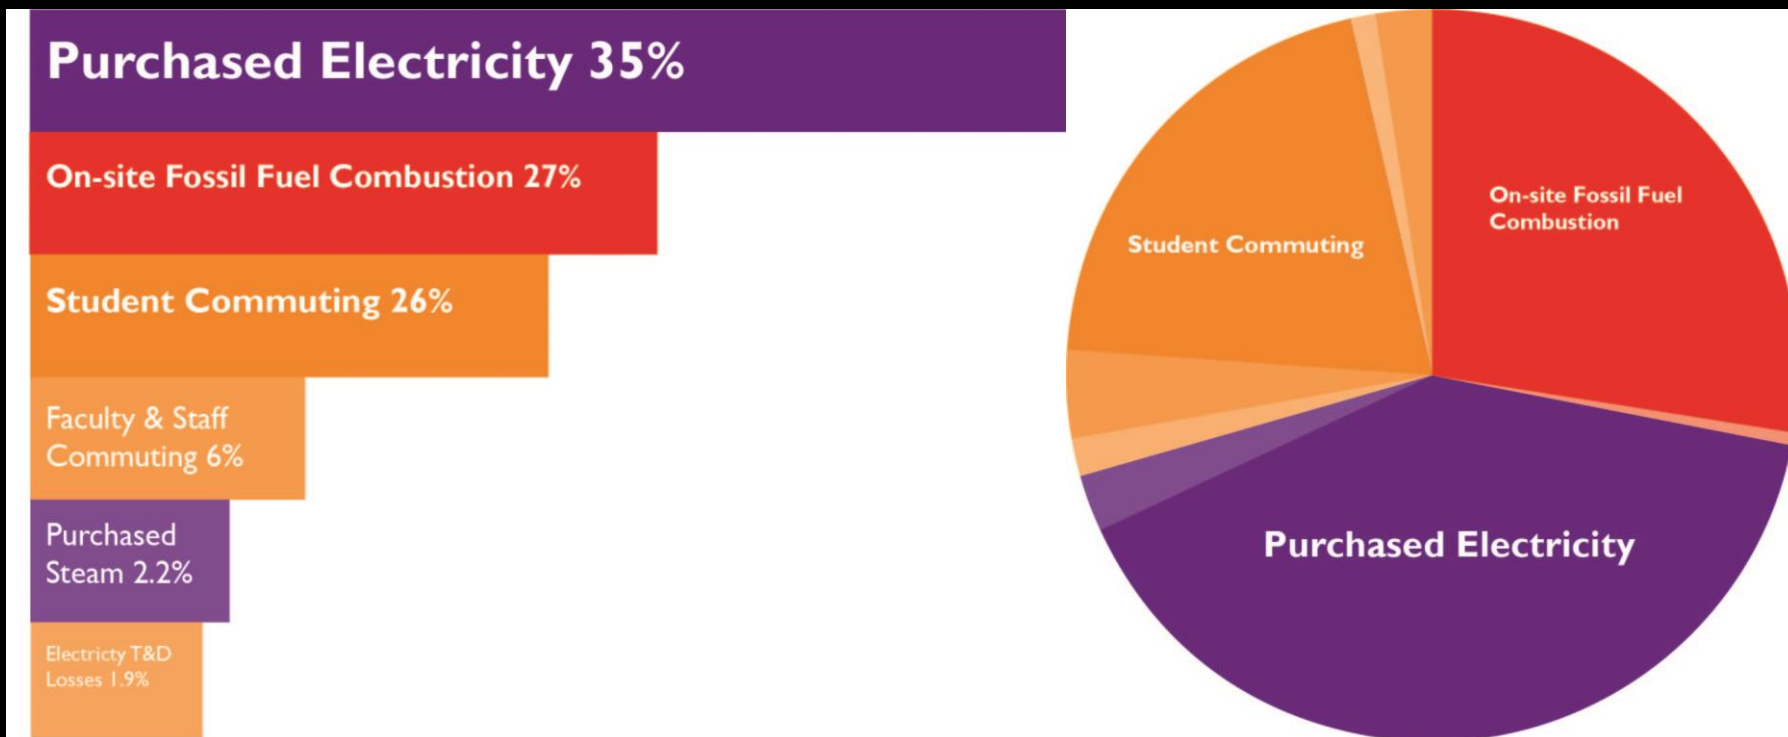

Scope of the Office of Sustainability

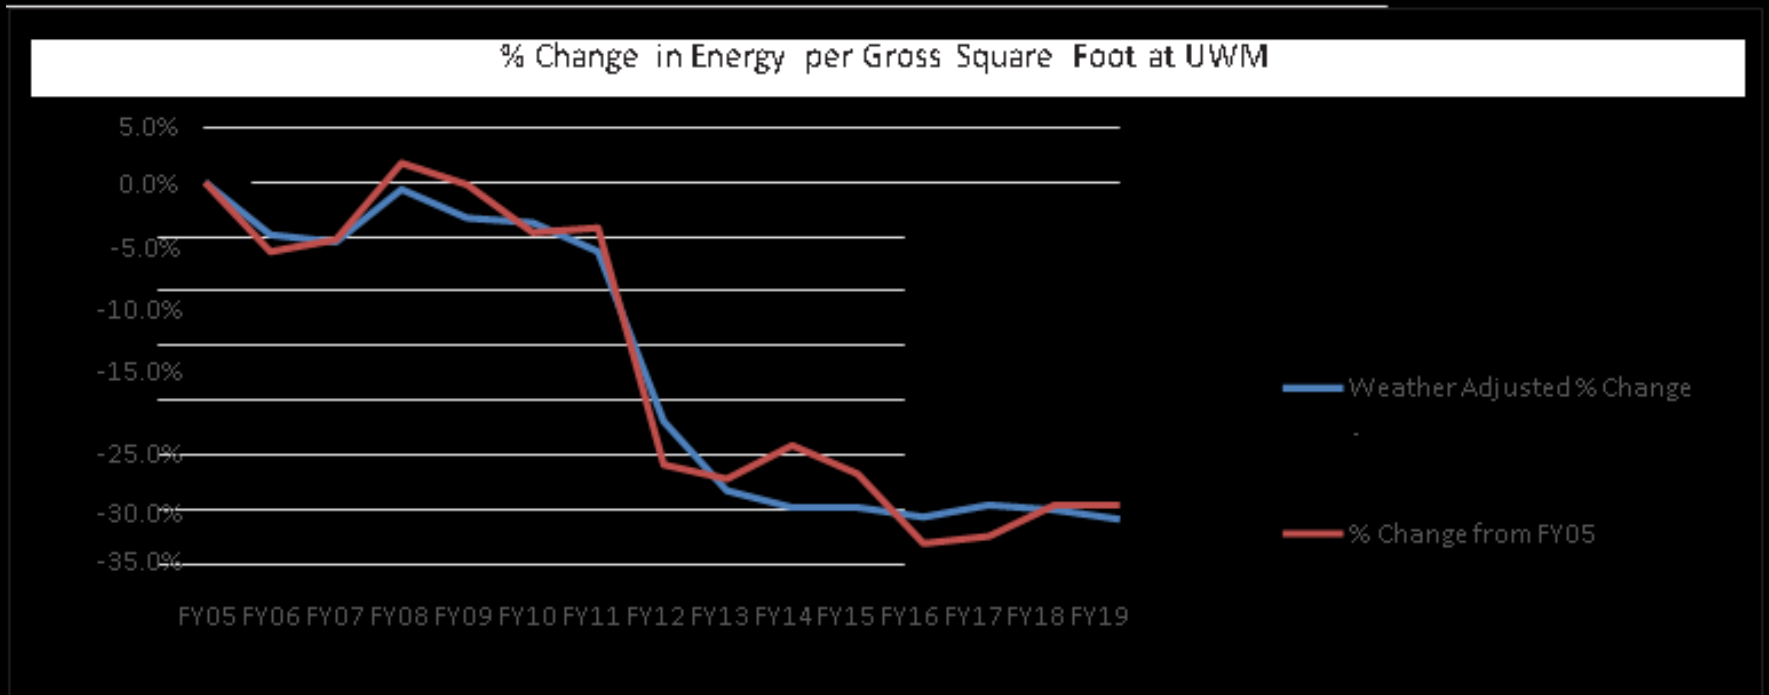

Greenhouse Gas Inventory of UWM

- Scope 1 & 2 Emissions are down 35%

UWM BTU/GSF FY2005-2019

Fiscal Year 2019 Review

Earned Revenue = $57,348

- Surplus $56,286
- Carbon Offsets $1,062

Avoided Cost = $3,505,724

- Surplus $497,168
- Waste & Recycling $99,059
- Energy $2,905,213
- Stormwater Credits $4,284

Avoided Emissions = 23,882 MTCO₂

- Surplus 358 MTCO₂
- Waste & Recycling 2,885 MTCO₂
- Energy 20,579 MTCO₂

Student & Participant Hours

- Service Learners = 620
- Volunteers = 211
- Class Lectures = 537
- Co-Teaching = 640
- Educational Tours = 211
- Internship = 274
- Events = 278
- Planning = 278

Total = 3,049 hours

Current Projects

- Recycling Hauling Overhaul
- Carbon & Resiliency Climate Action Planning
- Large-Scale Renewable Energy Projects
- Sustainability Faculty Network w/ LEC

Engage with the Office of Sustainability...

- Talk with us about incorporating sustainability into your classes
- Build an internship through Campus as a Living Laboratory
- Data, Data, Data...Incorporate the data we gather into your research or coursework
- Infuse campus research into the work we are doing to enhance it

Questions?

Kate M. Nelson

Chief Sustainability Officer

knelson6@uwm.edu

