

Successes and Challenges during the COVID-19 Pandemic

Diane Reddy

Faculty Senate Meeting

12/10/20

Challenges

Expand portfolio of training & delivery options

BEFORE

Primarily in-person and blended workshops and programs

NOW also available as:

Online webinars/recordings, online self-paced training courses, self-serve resources (learning outcomes, grading, rubrics...)

Challenges

Help instructors prepare courses & improve quality

New resources: CETL Online Toolkit

Communities of practice: 157 participated

Effective examples: OBTP Commons Initiative

Informative guides: Evaluation Checklist for Online Courses

Enhanced pedagogical training: New Canvas Webinar Series

<https://uwm.edu/cetl/online/>

Successes

*More than 1,200 completed training for online teaching***

To recognize investment in professional development & the skills and knowledge gained, instituted Badges:

Successes

*New Lightboard Studio & self-paced training in Canvas***

Active Teaching Lab recording on UWM's Lightboard!

To access a short demo, instructor-created videos, the Lightboard training course in Canvas, and reserve studio time for your personal use:

<https://uwm.edu/cetl/uwm-lightboard-information/>

Successes

61 contributors!
290 registrants!

UWM's 2021 Virtual Teaching and Learning Symposium

Adapt • Persist • Connect
Thursday, January 14th

Join us to celebrate, connect, learn, and reflect!

Keynote Speaker:
Dr. Cate Denial
Bright Distinguished Professor of American History
Knox College

Keynote Address:
Pedagogy of Kindness