

University Committee Statement on Adopting a Vaccine Requirement at UWM

With respect for current scientific understanding of COVID-19 and guidelines from the CDC, it is clear that having as many people as possible vaccinated on campus is the best way to control the spread of COVID-19. Thus, we strongly endorse adopting a vaccine requirement for the campus community.