1.06 Membership and Structure of the Faculty Senate

(1) The Faculty Senate consists of the University Committee and forty (40) additional elected members, except as additional membership may be provided under 1.06(4). The University Committee serves as the executive committee of the Faculty Senate.

(2) Members of the Faculty Senate are elected at large by the University Faculty. Representation is apportioned among the various faculty divisions of the University on the basis of the number of faculty members in each. The University Committee makes an annual review of representation and provides for necessary adjustments in the next election.

(3) Members are elected for three-year terms, and no member serves more than two (2) consecutive terms or portions thereof. The term of office begins the first week of instruction in each academic year. One-third of the Faculty Senate members are elected for three-year terms annually. The Nominations Committee prepares the slate of nominees.

(4) Should the elections result in the Senate having no member from a college, then the candidate from that college who received the greatest number of votes shall be deemed elected for a one-year term as an additional member authorized by 1.06(1). Should the election result in the Senate having fewer than two (2) members who are assistant professors or instructors from each of the various faculty divisions of the University, then the one (1) or two (2) assistant professors or instructors from that faculty division with the greatest number of votes, shall be deemed elected for a one-year term as additional members authorized by 1.06(1).
