

Revisions to Academic Staff Hearing & Appeals Committee Bylaws

Rationale: The Academic Staff Codification Committee proposed that the Academic Staff Committee (ASC) recommend revisions to the absence policy of all AS standing committees. The Non-Teaching Academic Staff Committee submitted revisions to the AS Codification Committee who reviewed and recommended additional editorial revisions to change the capitalization of chair and secretary to lower case throughout the Bylaws.

NON-TEACHING ACADEMIC STAFF REVIEW COMMITTEE BYLAWS

ARTICLE I: -PURPOSE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Section 1: -Purpose

The purpose of the Non-Teaching Academic Staff Review Committee is to review non-teaching academic staff members who are recommended for indefinite status by their supervisors and to make a recommendation to the appropriate dean/division head.

Section 2: -Responsibilities

In accordance with UWM Academic Staff Personnel Policies and Procedures Chapters 103.02 and 107.03, the Committee-committee conducts a review of each candidate's employment history at the University according to the requirements of the candidate's position and the professional standards of the academic staff. -The Committee-committee must provide a written recommendation to the appropriate dean/division head within thirty days after receiving the request for advice from the dean/division head.

Committee members must vote in all cases except where a clear conflict of interest exists (see "Operating Policies and Procedures of the Non-Teaching Academic Staff Review Committee," Section VIII).

To ensure a thorough review and privacy of the candidate, Committee-committee members must respect the strictest standards of confidentiality. -The contents of the review file, additional information, and the Committee-committee deliberations must not be revealed to non-members of the Committee-committee, except as legally mandated. -A written recommendation is sent to the dean/division head and the candidate, but must not be revealed to anyone else without the written consent of the candidate.

At its first meeting of the committee year, the Committee-committee reviews the "Operating Policies and Procedures of the Non-Teaching Academic Staff Review Committee" and "Review of Non-Teaching Academic Staff for Indefinite Appointment" and submits recommended changes to the Senate of the Academic Staff for approval. -The "Operating Policies and Procedures of the Non-Teaching Academic Staff Review Committee," as amended, become effective upon approval. -Any changes to the "Review of Non-Teaching Academic Staff for Indefinite Appointment" become effective the first day (September 1) of the committee year following approval.

Each year, no later than October 15, the ~~Committee~~ committee publishes the "Review of Non-Teaching Academic Staff for Indefinite Appointment," "Operating Policies and Procedures of the Non-Teaching Academic Staff Review Committee," and a schedule of meetings, and distributes them to the Chancellor, deans, division heads, and probationary non-teaching academic staff members.

ARTICLE II: -MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: -Structure

The ~~Committee~~ committee consists of seven, non-teaching academic staff members with indefinite appointment elected by non-teaching academic staff members holding probationary or indefinite appointments. - No more than two members may be from the College of Letters and Science, and no more than one may be from any other school/college/division at the time of their election to the committee.

(AS Doc 71, 2/12 revision)

Section 2: -Nomination/Election Procedures

Members are nominated and elected in accordance with standard Academic Staff Operating Guidelines.

Section 3: -Term of Office

All members serve three-year terms. -No member may serve consecutive three-year terms. -The committee year is September 1 through the following August 31.

Section 4: -Absences

Participation of the entire ~~Committee~~ committee membership is essential to ensure a timely and equitable review of each candidate. -Members who miss six meetings within any consecutive twelve-months forfeit their committee membership. -There are no excused absences. In instances where a committee member may have to miss six or more meetings for a significant medical or life event, a "leave" may be taken from the committee and a replacement appointed for a semester or year (as determined by the approved leave) with a subsequent return to the committee to fulfill the remainder of the term. Such leave must be requested and approved by the committee chair and the Secretary of the University prior to the committee member's sixth absence.

(AS Doc 141, 9/23)

Section 5: -Vacancies

If a vacancy occurs, the position is filled by the eligible candidate who received the next highest number of votes in the most recent election. -That candidate will serve the remainder of the term associated with the vacancy. -If no eligible candidate is available, the Academic Staff Committee appoints an academic staff member to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term of service.
