SERVICE-LEARNING
WHAT IS SERVICE-LEARNING?

A credit-bearing, educational experience in which students participate in an organized service activity that meets identified COMMUNITY NEEDS. Students also reflect on the service activity to gain a deeper understanding of COURSE CONTENT, a broader appreciation of the discipline, and an enhanced sense of CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY.
LEARNING + DEVELOPMENT OUTCOMES

As a service learner you will...

– Connect more deeply to course content
– Work with diverse populations
– Be able to identify and understand the complexity of social issues
– Develop soft skills
– Gain professional and career experience
SOCIAL JUSTICE

• How does social justice relate to service learning and why are we talking about it?

• Our identities, culture, and past experiences shape how we interact with others and how we view the world around us.

• Take time to regularly reflect
RECIPROCITY

- To engage meaningfully with community members, focus on building relationships that are grounded in
  - Equity
  - Authenticity
  - Active listening
  - Cultural humility

- Remember to have an asset-based mindset

- Be mindful of assumptions and positionality
It is your responsibility to GET SET UP QUICKLY with your service-learning assignment.

TRAVEL TIME to and from your site, and any necessary site ORIENTATIONS DO NOT COUNT towards your required service hours.

Be sure to ATTEND ORIENTATION/TRAINING, BE ON TIME to all weekly service sessions, and if you cannot make it, call your site supervisor.

Treat this like any other class requirement and REPRESENT UWM in a POSITIVE and PROFESSIONAL manner.

Supervisor comments:

Students: When your service-learning is complete, be sure to get this form signed by your site supervisor, make a paper or digital copy for yourself, and turn it in to your instructor if requested. Otherwise it is for your future use as a record of your service. This may be valuable to you when you are building your resume or applying for graduate school. No record of these hours will be kept by the Center for Community-Based Learning, Leadership, and Research, so it is up to you to maintain this record.
