

Written and Oral Presentation of Client System and/Or Case Study
(Points = 2)

Social workers are regularly called upon to make written and oral presentations of clients systems or case studies. Since the social work profession is built upon professional supervision and peer consultation. The development of this skill is essential in quality social work practice. Knowledge of how to proceed from the beginning of a case to the end, delivering a clear and concise oral presentation, documenting a formal case summary, and responding to case-related questions.

Note: For the purpose of this assignment please change the names, DOB's, addresses, phone numbers, places of employment, name of agency and any other information that may link this report to the client. You can use the "find and replace" feature of Word to make these changes easily.

ASSIGNMENT:

The completion of this assignment requires: (Note: Individual agency format may be used in lieu of the following):

1. Developing a written outline for the presentation including the following:
 - a) Client description – all basic and significant personal information and history.
 - b) Client's Presenting Problems (and Strengths).
 - c) Engagement (Joining) Quality of Relationship. Identify whether client is voluntary or non-voluntary.
 - d) Formal Assessment.
 - e) DSM-IV diagnosis, including Axis I-V, when applicable.
 - f) Treatment Plan Implications and Outcome Measures Design (and baseline measures).
 - g) Treatment Outcome (with final evaluative and comparative measures, qualitative information on outcomes as well).
 - h) Closure (termination) with Prevention Strategies Plan.
2. Delivering the presentation
3. Write a brief evaluation of the presentation including critical comments and questions from audience.

4. Submit completed outline and evaluation to Field Instructor.
5. Submit completed outline and evaluation with a dated signature of Field Instructor to Faculty Field Liaison.