

IV Ibero-American and Latino Studies Colloquium

Speakers:

Roberto García Delgado, UW-Milwaukee

“El Desengaño de Carlitos: Consecuencias en el proceso de modernización de México en Las batallas en el desierto, de José Emilio Pacheco.”

Miguel Santos, UW-Milwaukee

“La figura del narrador en El llano en llamas de Juan Rulfo.”

Keynote Speaker and Presentation:

Amy Olen, University of Texas at Austin

“Imagining Maya Women in Guatemalan Literature.”

Amy Olen is a PhD candidate at the University of Texas at Austin where she studies Latin American Literature and Cultural Studies, with a focus on Central American literature. Before attending UT-Austin, she completed an MA in Translation Studies in 2006 and an MA in Spanish in 2010, both from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. She completed her undergraduate work in Latin American Studies and International Relations at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and has worked as a Peace Corps Volunteer, a Junior Fellow for the Inter-American Dialogue, and a medical interpreter in Milwaukee area hospital

Day: April 5th, 2013

Time: 2:30 pm

Place: Garland Hall 104

