Campus Activities Board
Rebecca Grassl- Assistant Director of Student Involvement
hillr@uwm.edu

Introduction

The Campus Activities Board (CAB) is a group of students dedicated to enhancing campus life through creative programming that unites the students with a sense of community, while enriching the UW-Milwaukee experience. CAB hosts dozens of programs annually and participates in major campus traditions including but not limited to Fall Welcome, Homecoming, Geek Week, and Earth Week. The programming board is currently split into four programming teams: Coffee House, Explore MKE, Late Night Programming, and Traditions. Examples of programs from 2016-2017 include the following, Hippo Campus Homecoming Concert, trip to Helium Trampoline Park, comedian Eric O'Shea, Guardians of the Galaxy movie premiere, and a Murder Mystery. Every spring, CAB finishes the year with their culminating annual tradition, a major comedy event hosted at the Milwaukee Theater. The 2017 event featured Nick Offerman and was attended by over 2,100 students. CAB has already started another year of successful programming and looks forward to serving UWM students with fun, thoughtful, and creative programs to enhance the student experience.

Student Association
Emily Kuester – Student Association President
ekuester@uwm.edu

Introduction

The Student Association is the voice for all students at UWM. The Student Association represents students in all campus committees and official meetings. They engage in the shared governance process. They also provide support to student organizations through the SAC process. Thousands of students will attend SA sponsored events this year. All students have to take the "Think About It" training that was pushed by the Student Association. Hundreds of students will use the "Contact Us" page or reach out to the SA via e-mail to have their specific concerns addressed. The SA is always aiming to reach all 26,000+ students.

Introduction

Registered Student Organizations (RSOs) at UWM can apply for grant funding through the SA's Senate Appropriations Committee. Roughly $300,000 each semester is awarded to RSOs to support on-campus events, operations, and travel opportunities. To apply for a SAC grant, student orgs must first attend a SAC-grant training where they will be given all the information required to apply for a grant.

Introduction

The fundamental service of the University Legal Clinic is to provide UWM students with free and quality legal assistance in a variety of legal issues. We commonly assist students with legal issues involving landlord/tenant disputes, traffic citations/accidents, immigration, uncontested divorce, criminal, and notary services. The staff attorney of the University Legal Clinic may represent students through legal matters through a program called Lawyers Assisting Wisconsin Students (LAWS), which allows students to retain our staff attorney at a reduced rate. UWM students, however, are not required to retain our staff attorney to receive legal advice from us. The staff attorney and volunteer paralegals of the University Legal Clinic conduct legal research and legal correspondence between opposing parties on behalf of UWM students. With our fundamental service, UWM students are able to find an affordable, convenient, and efficient resolution to their legal issues. The University Legal Clinic, aside from providing legal assistance to UWM students, also offers an excellent opportunity for UWM students interested in the law field to gain valuable experiences as a volunteer paralegal. These volunteer paralegals may be from any major or school at UWM, but these volunteer paralegals must commit to a three consecutive semester program. The first semester of the volunteer paralegal program consists of a training semester where UWM students are taught how to conduct legal research, legal writing, and client interviewing. The volunteer paralegal program of the University Legal Clinic provides UWM students with the chance to assist fellow students and give back within their campus community.
