 - i. Reaching out to international student organizations about the event map.

IV. Open Forum

No one wishing to speak from the public

V. Approval of Agenda

- a. Motion by Graybow to approve the Agenda. Second by Michelz. Motion to approve agenda passes unanimously

VI. Special Orders

- a. None

VII. Old Business

- a. None

VIII. New Business

- a. Debate
 - i. Decided that next week we are going to discuss what primary issues to focus on rather than limiting the topics to the jurisdiction
 - ii. Ideal outcome: No feedback yet from student orgs. Looking at a dialogue if it's more than two organizations, if it's a one on one then look more towards a debate. Also looking for collaboration after the discussion
 - iii. Focus on making a more collaborative/bi-partisan debate rather than an adversarial environment

- iv. Concern over behavior of the audience's civility
- v. Find topics that are non-controversial
- vi. Goal is to encourage vigorous debate and then work together and cooperate afterwards
- vii. Make contract prior to the debate to make the code of conduct clear and ensure the participants know what is and is not allowed
- viii. Action item: Create proposal for the rules of the debate (Becky/Stuart)

IX. Questions and Concerns

- a. None

X. Adjournment

- a. Motion to adjourn by Karas, second by Eaton.
- b. In favor: Karas, Becky, Singh.
