III. Reports
   w. Connor Mathias - Has been meeting with senators for projects that they will get going on. SLIC met, it went well. The main challenge with SA is the lack of senators, he notes that he might be preaching to the choir, but recruitment needs to be prioritized. Connor says that he has a goal of talking to 50 people and that if everyone did this a few people might join. In good news, a new VPSA has been chosen, Connor says that he is very excited about it, but since they cannot vote he yields time to Clarence
      i. Clarence – He talks about some of his experiences as a part of SA, including some projects that he has been a part of. He says that most or all of his projects have been related to student affairs, he has a willingness to compromise, and a desire to do good for students. Yugg asks why he did not run next year. Clarence says that the role needed to be filled and he had experience.
   x. Liz Sunday - nothing to report
   y. Conal McNamara – At the last meeting, Heintzkill asked for Conal to reach out to the three people who were planning on being senators, two have responded they are on the fence. Has been working on the Environmental internship committee, but they have been unable to make quorum. CAB Halloween event went well. Listening tour work continues, also reaching out to the inclusive center to partner with them for an event. Got two tabling dates in the union atrium, requests people who might be interested in staffing.

z. Katie Malek - Half of the senators have met with her, the rest should make a meeting with her. Secondly, has been reaching out to 1/3 of the student orgs for recruitment of academic senators.

aa. Sam Wisneski – Firstly, UWM SA url has been updated to uwm.edu/sa. Secondly the instagram following has greatly increased. Thirdly will be taking pictures for senator marketing.

bb. Nathan Anderson – SAC hearings are going ok, considering that they are unable to vote. Nathan and Alexis have been communicating to RSO about RSO spots, to have people who might be open to joining. Nathan asks that people recruit.

c. Daniel Dyer – had the first presentation for SFC went over well, is looking for ROAC to meet again. Has talked to a few people about being senators.

dd. Silbi Isein - nothing to report

ee. Dylan Schneider - nothing to report ff. Emma Horvat – Met for SLC and WAC and has sent out recruitment letter.

gg. Yugg Kolhe - nothing to report hh. Valerie Edgington - nothing to report ii. Jared Wescott - nothing to report

jj. Nikia Handy - nothing to report kk. OAC – reminder to only send out PDFs not word documents. Also post physically on the bulletin boards.

ll. SAPS – first shared governance training for committee leaders, additionally on Sunday November 17th providing a senator training retreat, they request that all senators and VPs and president come to the retreat. There is an appointment for the IEC this is the third person that needs to be filled for them to meet, this is very important, Sarah asks that people recruit for this as well.

IV. Open Forum

Laurie Marks speaks from the Center of Community-Based Learning, Leadership, and Research. Mentions their previous involvement with being the Student body president, was president when the bus passes went through. They present about the CCBLLR office, they partner with the community to inspire those at UWM to partner. They do internship programs, alternative spring break, volunteering, etc. Wisconsin is high up, Milwaukee is number 4 for volunteering in the nation as a city. UWM is the most community engaged university in the state. They continue to present on the statistics and the various projects that CCBLLR does.

Connor asks about reemphasizing how fun Make a Difference Day is. Laurie speaks about the advantages and the enjoyable aspects of Make a Difference Day. Connor says that he had a really good time, started out as a class requirement, but enjoyed it a lot and wants to do it more. Yugg wanted to say that he was required to do community service, but put it off, he had to cram in all the events, but ended up having some really great experience doing the different things.
