Motivation

What do others want?
It is NOT money or personal gain that most people want. They want intrinsic satisfaction. People will work harder for intrinsic satisfaction than they will for monetary income. The following are some ways that you as a leader can help people satisfy those intrinsic needs:

People Need to Feel Important
See people as worthwhile human beings loaded with untapped potential; go out of your way to express this attitude.

Give Praise
Reinforce for continual achievement. All people need praise and appreciation. Get into the habit of being “praise-minded.” Give public recognition when it is due.

Give People Status
The more status and prestige you can build into a committee or an organization, the more motivated the members become. There are many status symbols you can use to make others feel important. For example, develop a “Member of the Week/Month” Award or “Committee Chairperson of the Month” Award. In addition, simply treating people with courtesy is a way of giving them status.

Communicate
People like to know what is going on in the organization. They want to be told about problems, objectives, and “inside information.” They feel recognized and important when they are kept informed. Two-way communication within the organization is necessary in order to achieve a mutual understanding. Mutual understanding leads to motivation!

Give Security
People need more than financial security. People will look to you for intrinsic security. For example, they must know that you like them, respect them understand them and accept them not only for their strong points, but also for their weaknesses.

People Need You – People Need People
They need you to give them what they want and need: intrinsic satisfaction. When you give them what they want, they will give you what you want. This is what motivation is all about. It is not something you do to other people, but something they do for themselves. You give them the reasons and that makes you the motivator – a person who gets things done through others.

Develop Purpose
Always explain why. Instill in the members that their assistance is vital for success. Share ways that participation can encourage personal growth.

Encourage Participation in Group Goal Development
Include all members when planning goals. Consider and follow through on members' suggestions. Remember that we support that which we help to create.

Develop a Sense of Belonging
People like to belong. Those who feel like they belong will more likely invest themselves.

Specific Ways to Increase Motivation
- Give others credit when it is due them.
- Use "We" statements, and not "I."
- Play up the positive and not the negative.
- Make meetings and projects appear attractive and interesting.
- When you are wrong, admit it.
- Use members’ names often.
- Let members in on the early stages of plans.
- Be fair, honest, and consistent – show no favoritism.
- Be careful what you say – do not gossip.
- Listen to others.
- Expect only the best and be proud when members achieve it!

GRAPE Theory of Motivation Growth
Being able to increase one's skills and competencies, performing new or more complex tasks, participating in training programs.

Recognition
Promotion within the organization, praise for achievements, positive and constructively critical feedback, receiving an award, printed references to an individual's activities, being "listened to."

Achievement
The opportunity to solve a problem, to see the results of one's efforts, to reach goals that one has established to create a 'whole' tangible product.

Participation
Involvement in the organizational decision making, planning and scheduling one's own work and controlling one's own work activities.

Enjoyment!
Having fun in a warm, friendly, supportive atmosphere.
