

Reading Strategies Self-Assessment

Directions: Assess your current reading strategies by checking the appropriate responses to the following questions. Be prepared to discuss the efficacy of your current strategy. Think about why each of the following are relevant to reading effectively.

	Always	Sometimes	Never
I preview all of my textbooks to review the learning aids provided by the authors.
I preview each chapter before I read.
I think of questions as I read.
I underline the important sentences or words of the text as I read.
I think of the main ideas and how they relate to the lecture material as I read.
I use maps or charts to organize the content as I read.
I complete examples or answer questions at the end of each section when I am finished reading.
I make notes to identify material that I do not understand.
I constantly monitor my understanding as I read.
I read my assignments before attending lecture.
