

THE BUILDING OF AMERICA AND DEMOCRACY DENIED

Guest Lecturer:

Kirk E. Harris
M.P.A., J.D., Ph.D.
Attorney-at-Law
Associate Professor of Urban Planning
School of Architecture and Urban Planning
University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

Professor Kirk Harris's work focuses on racial and economic equity and the historical, systemic, and policy-based practices that undermine racial and economic justice in African American and low-income communities of color. As an urban planning practitioner, he is guided by efforts to advance social justice and equity. He serves on the National American Planning Association's (APA) Social Justice Taskforce and was the inaugural spokesperson for APA's launch of its national campaign that seeks to encourage planners to embrace social justice in their planning practices.
