

Student Caregiver Support Group

The student caregiver group will provide a safe space to discuss the stressors, challenges and rewards related to providing care for loved ones. In group students can share experiences and provide emotional support to one another. Participants will have a space to connect with others and gain insight into coping and maintaining a sense of identity outside of the caregiver role.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

For more information contact Constance
Phillips LCSW at philli65@uwm.edu