UWM Women's & Gender Studies
Student Research Paper & Project Contest

Submission Form

Entries are due to Women's & Gender Studies, Curtin Hall 535, by 4pm on February 15, 2018

Please type or print clearly requested information.

Please check one of the following:

☐ Undergraduate Research Paper  ☐ Undergraduate Project
☐ Graduate Research Paper  ☐ Graduate Project

Student’s Name: ________________________________

Address: ____________________________________________

City: __________________________ State/Zip: ________________

Daytime Phone #: __________________________ UWM E-mail: __________________________

Student’s Classification: Year _______ Major __________________________

Title of Paper / Project: __________________________________________

________________________________________

Course Number and Title for which paper or project was completed:

________________________________________

Semester course was taken: ________________ Instructor: __________________________

Please check one of the following:

☐ Submitted by student  ☐ Nominated by instructor

If nominated by an instructor, the instructor should explain why she/he recommends this paper/project as an exemplary piece of work. Please attach the instructor’s written recommendation to the student’s submission form.

Judging is done through a blind review process. Judges’ decisions are final.

Prior to submitting your paper or project, please review the Detailed Submission Instructions to ensure that your submission is complete. Thank you.

For more information, please contact Women's & Gender Studies at (414) 229-5918 or visit our office, Curtin Hall 535.